IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.12136 of 2008
KIRO YADAV @ KRISHNANDAN YADAV
Versus
THE STATE OF BIHAR

3/ 16/7/2008. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner renews his prayer for bail on the 4th occasion in a police case under Section- 302 of I.P.C.

The ground urged is that the informant in his deposition has not supported the allegations and did not recognize the petitioner in the dock.

The Court has gone through the deposition of the informant. Since the trial is still going on, the Court considers it proper only to observe that even after having gone through the deposition, this Court is not persuaded to grant bail to the petitioner.

The Court is additionally informed that the trial is virtually near completion and only three witnesses remain to be examined. The Court below is directed to take all necessary coercive measures in law to ensure the appearance of the remaining witnesses which shall be duly complied with by the concerned

Superintendent of Police so that the trial is brought to its conclusion at an early date.

The application is rejected.
